Make a trail adventure at home!

Exploring trails is lots of fun, so why not try creating clues for your friends and family to quide them around where you live!

To get started, think of a clue for a specific place in your house. Go to that location and leave a new clue for the next location in your trail. Maybe you'll even leave some treasure at the final clue location!

All you need is a pair of scissors, a pen or pencil and your imagination.

Use the ideas below to get you started.
